

DeliverNow Runner Manager

Interview Guide

Hi, thanks for meeting with me today. My name is Elijah Gathanga, we're working on improving the tools that help managers like you oversee runners. I'd like to learn about your day-to-day work, challenges, and ideas so we can design better solutions. There are no right or wrong answers — I'm here to learn.

Is it okay if I take notes and/or record this interview?

1 Background Info

- Tell me about your typical day as manager.
- How many runners do you typically oversee during a shift?
- What tools do you currently use to manage runners?

2 Monitoring and Control

- How do you track the location and status of runners?
- What challenges do you face in tracking or managing your runners?
- How do you assign or reassign delivery tasks?

3 Route Fairness and Efficiency

- How do you ensure routes are fairly distributed?
- What difficulties arise in managing route assignments?

4 Communication

- How do you communicate with runners during deliveries?
- What tools or features would help you manage your team better?

5 General Experience

- What do you like about your current runner management system?
- What is your biggest frustration as a runner manager?

Thank you for your time and sharing your experience with me. Is there anything else that you would like to add?
